Sathya Sai Baba & His Cult

This site has info on Sathya Sai Baba's cult, it does not have any information on Sathya Sai Baba's bhajans, movies, pictures, "miracles", books, dreams, etc. If you are a Sathya

Sai Baba devotee, you might get very offended, so if you prefer, do not read any further and go to another site. However, if you want to be a serious, true seeker of the truth, then please bookmark this site and read the contents. Thank you.

Sathya Sai Baba claims to be an Avatar -- a Hindu word for God's descent into a human body. He supposedly has millions of followers, although no one really knows how many followers there really are. Sathya Sai Baba also claims that he has the power to do anything he wills. There are numerous stories by Sai Baba's devotees on how Sai Baba has produced a ring -- out of nowhere -- for them, how they were cured, etc. Sathya Sai Baba supposedly can produce things out of nowhere by circling his right hand and then with a quick downward move, he grabs something and gives it to one of his followers. As an ex-devotee of Sathya Sai Baba, I know of four movies that clearly show him cheating on this "miracle" that has made him very famous, rich, and has brought to him millions of followers -- some are very well known -- from all over the world. This web site attempts to introduce to the readers the dark side of Sathya Sai Baba.
