

AADHA AKASH <the.great.conjunction.2020.12.21@gmail.com>

ESCHATOLOGY: Very truly I tell you, No one can enter the Kingdom of God unless they are born of sperm-ovulation and Spirit-evolution in ...

1 message

Jagbir Singh <s.jagbir@gmail.com>

Wed, May 5, 2021 at 11:48 AM

To: AADHA AKASH <the.great.conjunction.2020.12.21@gmail.com>

Very truly I tell you, No one can enter the Kingdom of God unless they are born of sperm-ovulation and Spirit-evolution in the Age that has Come when “there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and pestilences. And there will be terrors and great signs from Heaven” (May 5, 2021)

The deepest secrets of Jesus are in His parables, and QM calibrated for eternal life. It all depends on how you pay attention to how you listen. (May 5, 2021)

May 5, 2021

The parables of Jesus are beyond both comparison and comprehension. They were specifically for eschatological awakening during the End Times. Uttered 2000 years ago, the deepest and profound of parables are exclusively and explicitly for those living in the Age to Come, commencing with the birth of Israel 1948 confirming, among other Eschatological Signs, that the Messiah-Paraclete is in their midst.

The promised Resurrection commenced on May 5, 1970 when the Messiah-Paraclete Shri Mataji opened the last and highest Chakra, the Sahasrara. But Her disciples had ears that could only hear shri mataji Nirmala Devi, not the Messiah-Paraclete Shri Mataji. They could not hear Jesus ‘speaking,’ again.

They could not hear Jesus, [a man,] ‘speaking,’ again [through a Woman]. They could not hear Jesus, a Son, ‘speaking,’ again through His Mother. They could not hear Jesus—who guards the Agnya Chakra and entrance to the Kingdom of God (Sahasrara)—‘speaking,’ again through the Creator, Owner, and Ruler of that Kingdom of God.

Am I saying the parables were for the disciples of the Paraclete Shri Mataji? Yes and no.

Question: Yes, and no!? Jagbir, what do you mean by both a “yes” and a “no”?

Answer: It is only for those who have ears that can hear Jesus ‘again.’

Question: But everyone has ears that hear, and only the stone-deaf cannot. Tens of thousands of the Paraclete’s disciples called Sahaja Yogis had ears that heard Her speaking. Yet you have made claims since 2000 on social media platforms like Yahoo, Google, and Whatsapp to the contrary. Jagbir, what evidence do you have that SYs did not have ears that hear?

Answer: It all depends on how they pay attention to how they listen.

Question: How they listen? What do you mean by that?

Answer: Just pay attention to how you listen to the following parables and judge for yourself if SYs in particular and the nations in general can hear Jesus and the Paraclete glorifying Him for the last 50 years. Even if Christians think their ears can hear I assure you they have not for the last 2000 years:

Then the disciples came and asked him, "Why do you speak to them in parables?" He answered, "To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given. For to those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away.

The reason I speak to them in parables is that 'seeing they do not perceive, and hearing they do not listen, nor do they understand.' With them indeed is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah that says:

'You will indeed listen, but never understand, and you will indeed look, but never perceive. For this people's heart has grown dull, and their ears are hard of hearing, and they have shut their eyes; so that they might not look with their eyes, and listen with their ears, and understand with their heart and turn—and I would heal them.'

— Matthew 13:10-17 [emphasis our 2021-05-05]

When he was alone, those who were around him along with the twelve asked him about the parables. And he said to them, "To you has been given the secret of the kingdom of God, but for those outside, everything comes in parables; in order that 'they may indeed look, but not perceive, and may indeed listen, but not understand; so that they may not turn again and be forgiven.'"

And he said to them, "Do you not understand this parable? Then how will you understand all the parables? The sower sows the word. These are the ones on the path where the word is sown: when they hear, Satan immediately comes and takes away the word that is sown in them.

And these are the ones sown on rocky ground: when they hear the word, they immediately receive it with joy. But they have no root, and endure only for a while; then, when trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, immediately they fall away.

And others are those sown among the thorns: these are the ones who hear the word, but the cares of the world, and the lure of wealth, and the desire for other things come in and choke the word, and it yields nothing. And these are the ones sown on the good soil: they hear the word and accept it and bear fruit, thirty and sixty and a hundredfold."— Mark 4:10-17 [emphasis our 2021-05-05]

"Then his disciples asked him what this parable meant. He said, "To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of God; but to others I speak in parables, so that 'looking they may not perceive, and listening they may not understand.'

"Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. The ones on the path are those who have heard; then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. The ones on the rock are those who, when they hear the word, receive it with joy. But these have no root; they believe only for a while and in a time of testing fall away. As for what fell among the thorns, these are the ones who hear; but as they go on their way, they are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not mature.

But as for that in the good soil, these are the ones who, when they hear the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patient endurance."

"No one after lighting a lamp hides it under a jar, or puts it under a bed, but puts it on a lampstand, so that those who enter may see the light. For nothing is hidden that will not be disclosed, nor is anything secret that will not become known and come to light.

Then pay attention to how you listen; for to those who have, more will be given; and from those who do not have, even what they seem to have will be taken away."

Then his mother and his brothers came to him, but they could not reach him because of the crowd. And he was told, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you." But he said to them, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it."

— Luke 8:9-21 [emphasis ours 2021-05-05]

The question, when conscience is questioned: "What would Jesus have done?" (April 8, 2020)

Answer: Jesus put his mother and brothers aside. I have done exactly the same too since 2009, even against my brother Balwinder Singh and my mother residing with him. Both are fools who cannot hear this verse in their morning Japji prayers.

Question: Are you saying that everyone taking part in the Resurrection should discard their parents and siblings, let alone relatives and friends, and serve all parents and all siblings?

Answer: If they oppose no question should arise. Don't you think the warming of the global warming by Jesus a pressing enough reason to stand up to make the difference? Is it possible to awaken from the Maya of Kali Yuga. Is it possible to flee from Satan? Is it possible to 'hear' Jesus, again?

Then His Mother and His brothers came to Him but were unable to join Him because of the crowd. He was told, "Your Mother and Your brothers are standing outside and they wish to see you." He said to them in reply, "My Mother and My brothers are those who hear the word of God and act on it." Luke 8:19-21

While He was speaking, a woman from the crowd called out and said to Him, "Blessed is the womb that carried you and the breasts at which you nursed." He replied, "Rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God and observe it." Luke 11:27-28

"If anyone comes to me and does not hate his father and mother, his wife and children, his brothers and sisters—yes, even his own life—he cannot be my disciple." Luke 14:26

While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to him. Someone told him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you." He replied to him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" Pointing to his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother." Matthew 12:46-50

Question: Why was the mother and brothers of Jesus waiting outside as they wanted to see Him? Did they not believe in Jesus? Don't you think something is wrong with the picture? Don't you think you should investigate your doubt, your judgmental stance against falsehood? Is this fishy Christian belief any different from the flaky Khumb Mela?

Answer: Today, May 5, 2021, I have begun understanding the Savior a bit better. At the same time, I am also disturbed. I am disturbed by the reading of Luke 1. I am disturbed by the fact that mother Mary was a virgin even though married to father Joseph. And if she was not, then how could she have conceived and not get stoned to death for unmarried adultery?

I have only quickly glanced the first thirty verses when this discovery was made. I then went back to the beginning of Luke 1 and read again, slowly.

I am disturbed by Luke 1:26 that "In the sixth month of Elizabeth's pregnancy, God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a town in Galilee, to a virgin pledged to be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of David." Joseph, the father of Jesus, is a descendent of King David.

I am now disturbed by the declaration at Luke 1:32 that "The Lord God will give him [Jesus] the throne of his father David." Jesus, the son of David around 1000 BCE, is also the son of Joseph a thousand years later!

“David is described in the Hebrew Bible as king of the United Monarchy of Israel and Judah. In the Books of Samuel, David is a young shepherd who gains fame first as a musician and later by killing the giant Goliath, champion of the Philistines. He becomes a favorite of King Saul and a close friend of Saul's son Jonathan. Worried that David is trying to take his throne, Saul turns on David and tries to kill him, leading the latter to go on the run and operate as a fugitive for several years. After Saul and Jonathan are killed in battle against the Philistines, a 30-year old David is anointed king over all Israel and then conquers Jerusalem, establishing the city as his capital, and taking the Ark of the Covenant into the city to be the center of worship in the Israelite religion.

According to the Biblical narrative, King David commits adultery with Bathsheba, leading him to arrange the death of her husband Uriah the Hittite. David's son Absalom later schemes to overthrow David and, during the ensuing rebellion, David flees Jerusalem, but returns after Absalom's death to rule Israel. David desires to construct a temple to YHWH in which to house the Ark but, because he shed much blood, YHWH denies David the opportunity to do so. David goes on to rule as king until his death at age 70, prior to which he chooses his son Solomon, born to him and Bathsheba, to be his successor instead of Adonijah, David's eldest surviving son. David is honored in the prophetic literature as an ideal king and the forefather of a future Messiah, and many psalms are ascribed to him.”

I am now blissfully disturbed by Luke 1:33 that “he [Jesus] will reign over Jacob's descendants forever; his kingdom will never end.”

I am now too happily confused to continue (but will on another day.)

Question: But how can you be blissfully disturbed and happily confused? Is it because May 5, 1970 is one of the greatest, if not the most important Eschatological Event of this Universe? Isn't that the case since there was awakening this morning, something that ears are hearing for the very first time concerning the father and mother of Jesus? Who is telling the truth? Who allowed this satanic lie or both satanic lies, amongst numerous others, to enter the Bible? Who is exposing this dark secret, and more importantly, why?

Answer: The deepest secrets of Jesus are in His parables, and QM calibrated for eternal life. It all depends on how you pay attention to how you listen in the Age that has Come. You can either hear Jesus through the Paraclete, or nothing. If you do not hear the Paraclete, you will not hear Jesus. If you do not hear Jesus, you will not hear the Paraclete.

May 5, 1970 is all about Jesus, the Resurrection, and eternal life in the Kingdom of God. Anyone who fails is invited by the Devi to reside at Her Jeweled Island till complete liberation. Moksa depends on how you pay attention to how you listen to Her Son too.

jagbir