Hi everybody,

You will have to forgive me for intruding into your Whatsapp privacy but I am compelled by conscience to inconvenient some who, out of respect and not fear, do not complain. (But I am no Salman Khan the Mahabully who hid in plain sight and was worshipped by tens of millions. Even this almost impossible to exposure is part of the Awakening that the living are not aware of. Sushant understood QM and triumphed!)

For some reason today—the summer Solstice and longest day in the Northern Hemisphere—I felt compelled so speak. It is the supreme sacrifice of Sushant Singh that makes me intrude. To be silent of the Divine that Sushant embraced—a divinity that priests, pandits and gianis have absolutely no idea—would be an act of cowardice. Yes, I will be regarded as a coward who was afraid that the God of Sushant Singh will offend those whose Gods are different.

But Sushant understood the Divine through Quantum Mechanics exactly the way I did since last year, only far deeper. He understood better as I depend on the crutch of science to take a few steps, and no further. I know Quantum Mechanics (or Physics etc.) blows your mind away. You know that this Vast Mind is the entire Universe, and beyond. Once acknowledged, this Vast Mind begins to awaken you. I must emphasize that IT begins firing your first neurons to awaken. The Consciousness awakens.

But awakening is a slow, smooth, serene, and silent process. I am in the process of awakening my daughter Lalita and her friend Alejandra (who will also be in this HALF THE SKY Whatsapp group). So it is not a lecture but rather the reflection of love for a daughter-woman who must embrace the grand vision for Half the Sky.

So all of you are in a safe place here as my facts can be checked as Lalita Kaur is present too among her aunties, uncles, cousins, nephews, nieces and friends from both Canada and Malaysia. She is a woman with a scientific mind just like Harisha and other daughters. They will understand better, after a while. Half The Sky must understand Quantum Mechanics since the Observer backs them both scientifically and spiritually.

I then hesitated, and stopped. The living will not understand, I thought loudly. Kaliyuga egos are huge and financially secure. They are only attracted to influence, affluence and pampering. The egos of 2020 are not interested in other idols too. Theirs are better. Always have been, always will be. Their priests of the last few hundreds said so.

Then the Vastness awoke me, again. I too was living before being awakened! And it took 25 years to finally awaken. Perhaps I may be able to reduce that to one.

And because that future where Half The Sky rightfully claims divinity is still invisible many of you may think it is impossible. It is not! It is not for those can see because the last 25 years was spent reading, watching, cross-examining thousands of newspapers, books, magazines, and documentaries to confirm what the Granth Sahib, Bible, Vedas, Puaranas, Quran, Torah, Upanishads, Bhagavat-Gita and others have in common. In other words, what is that Single Thread that holds them all together. It was the Aykaa Mayee! Yes, you heard it right – the Aykaa Mayee (One Mother) of all the gods.

Is Durga or Kali or Parvati a Shakti of the Aykaa Mayee? Yes! Is the Aykaa Mayee a Shakti of Durga or Kali or Parvati? No! The Aykaa Mayee is exclusively the one and only Mother, and She incarnates hundreds and thousands of times creation after dissolution, creation after dissolution. Hundreds and thousands of Durgas, Kalis and Parvatis!

That realization after more than two decades of meditation would only be true if you had spent 25 years going down that rabbit-holes of religions. If Spock and his Enterprise decided "To boldly go where no man has gone before", I did the same too. Only difference is that Spock went into space and I went into a rabbit-hole; a confusing, dizzying descent into controversy, deceit, lies, absurdity, ignorance, and what not. The blind faith of the living could not have made their gods (Fathers) so alien or hostile to every other rival (or idol). And then I went into QM. Quantum Mechanics shook the core of my being.

I thank Mao Zedong for his pity statement "women hold half the sky" since they will awaken all humanity. This Half the Sky is an immensely powerful Divine Force, a fact that I have discovered through Quantum Mechanics.

As I have said, Sushant understood the Divine through Quantum Mechanics exactly the way I did since last year, only far deeper. Just like Sushant when I awoke to Quantum Mechanics I was stunned beyond words. (This was around the time I went to Toronto and was glued to the 68-inch TV, watching documentary after QM documentary.)

Finally, today, I can loudly say, "Yes, the Aykaa Mayye is Quantum Mechanics." I will kick-start the new HALF THE SKY group with this:

Sushant, if the world ever needed a superstar of Quantum awakening, you nailed it. But the living nailed you! My deepest pranaam for confirming life eternal for the awakening in the Age that has Come. (June 20, 2020)

The Aykaa Mayee will awaken in the Age that has Come. It is without question the most amazing journey on Earth. Mother Nature will become your Friend too.
