All the way from Greenland: Arctic surfer Lena Stoffel takes to the water off

Norway's Lofoten Islands. The small bay of Unstad has all the elements to make it a perfect place for Arctic surfing. Long, regular waves travel here uninterruptedly from Greenland. "But the really special thing is that we're utterly alone in the water here," Stoffel says. "It's just us, our boards, and the vastness of nature all around us."
